GLAMONYOU

THE DRESS

Time taken to make: Approximately five days.

My inspiration: I worked heavily around the theme of red and wanted to make sure I designed something true to my Fabrics used: Lots of chiffon and silk.

Designed for: Definitely for a woman that likes raspberry

The dress' muse: Queen Rania of Jordan.

"I changed the design of the dress so many times, but wanted something very simple and wearable"

Glamonyou

Having set up her own fashion label, Glamonyou, in Dubai two years ago, German-born Nadine Arton has been flying the European flag here in the Middle East with her stunning kaftan style dresses and chiffon maxi gowns. But since starting her label, Nadine has made sure she continues to give back and has implemented a Corporate Social Responsibility programme for recycling her leftover materials to create blankets and toys for less fortunate children. "I believe that it is important to be involved with anything that either directly or indirectly, helps children in need and makes their lives in any way easier," explains Nadine.
